

The bandstand in Claremont collapsed a few years ago in a big stormy wind. But in a few months, music can once again ring out. Brian Galleon of Ironwood Restoration in Marlow MD has been rebuilding. The only original pieces, he said, are the capitals on top of the columns.

